

Kiwanis Magazine

October 2011

Answers

Word Search: First Kiwanis Clubs

Where's the Bear

1. Kiwanis International President Alan Penn and his Kiwanis bear pose near the confluence of four rivers in the capital city of a kingdom with temples, jungles and real sun bears. Answer: Preah Borom Reach Vang Chatomuk Mongkul (The Royal Palace in Phnom Penh, Cambodia).

2. Arón Benzadón, a member of the Kiwanis Club of Metropolitan, Panamá City, Panama, lunches with a Kiwanis bear at a kindergarten in a capital city once known as the village of Santa Fe of the former New Kingdom of Granada. Answer: Bogotá, Colombia

A Kiwanis bear romps with children around a globe at an address that's well-known to many Kiwanis members worldwide. The scene's been seen on magazine covers. Answer: Kiwanis International Office, Indianapolis, Indiana

A Kiwanis bear cheers for a National Football League team in a stadium named for a company that bottles ketchup. Answer: Heinz Field, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; hence, the "terrible towel" of the Pittsburgh Steelers.