Celebrate 25

The historic vote of 1987 changed everything. Now it’s time to celebrate! Here are some simple ideas to help you plan a successful event.

Honor women
- Legion of Honor recipients
- Kiwanians
- Elected Kiwanis leaders
- Non-Kiwanis community leaders who support women and children’s issues

Plan a celebration
- Banquet
- Luncheon
- Club meeting
- Picnic
- Afternoon tea
- Leadership education day

Create a theme
- Women Plant Seeds of Kindness
  - Create a gardening theme with flower pots, gardening tools, seed packets, etc.
- Hands-on Thanks
  - Create handprints in a variety of ways, such as having local K-Kids trace their handprints, cut them out and write thank you on each print or make handprint placemats
- Women are the Bright Lights of Helping
  - Create a theme of light and give out imprinted flashlights to shine the light on women and children’s issues
- Thanks for Being a Lifesaver
  - Create lifesavers as favors and centerpieces
- Women make a World of Difference
  - Create globes and pictures of children worldwide to represent all the children helped through Kiwanis
- Gold Medal Volunteers
  - Create an Olympic theme to coordinate with the Summer Olympics

Determine event details
- Create committee to plan event and media relations activities
