All children need to understand the joy of reading.
The first step is reading to them.
The second is to give them books they can treasure and read again and again.

A Kiwanis-family Event
February 1-March 3

An annual event with an ongoing need

Please join us as we inspire children and create opportunities to celebrate reading with them!

Date: __________________ Location: _____________________________________________

Time: ____________________ Sponsored by: _________________________________

Contact: _________________________ Telephone: __________________________