DC Metro Young Professionals
DCYP July Meeting

WWW.DCYPKIWANIS.ORG

Kiwanis Factoid:
By its 100th birthday in January 2015, Kiwanis International has dedicated itself to recruiting one million members. One million members will mean two million hands to perform community service. Imagine the impact worldwide.

I. Introductions

II. A month in review
- Alexandria Red Cross Waterfront Festival: June 17
- Nats vs. Yankees Social: June 18
- Food & Friends: June 20
- Division 1 council meeting: June 24
- N Street village: June 24
- Happy hour: June 27
- Kiwanis International Convention: June 28–July 2
- Manna Food Center: July 8

III. Become a member
- Membership is now 48 members strong!
- Sign up to be on a committee!

IV. Service
- Service Committee meeting, tonight (after meeting)
  - Purpose: discuss and plan future service projects
- Patriotic party at nursing home, Saturday, July 15, starting at 2 p.m.
  - J.B. Johnson Nursing Center (901 1st Street NW, Washington, DC)
  - Metro: Union Station (on red line)
  - The club will be hosting a patriotic party for the residents.
- Bread for the City, Tuesday, July 18, 6–8pm
  - 1525 7th Street NW (on 7th Street between P and Q Streets)
  - Metro: Shaw-Howard U (on green line)
  - We’ll either be packing grocery bags for the food pantry or working in the clothing room.

“We make a living by what we do, but we make a life by what we give.” —Winston Churchill
● Casino night, benefiting Bread for the City, Thursday, July 20, 7–10 p.m.
  ○ 18th Amendment (613 Pennsylvania Avenue SE, Washington, DC)
  ○ Metro: Eastern Market (on blue and orange lines)
  ○ Cost: $20 in advance/$25 at the door (includes raffle ticket, an allotment of gaming chips, complimentary appetizers, drink specials)
  ○ 100 percent of proceeds benefit Bread for the City, providing monthly food, clothing, medical care, legal, and social services to over 10,000 vulnerable DC residents.
  ○ To purchase advance tickets, contact their director at 202-587-0539.

● Park cleanup, Saturday, July 22, 9:30 a.m.–noon
  ○ Marie Butler Leven Preserve, McLean, VA

● Food & Friends, Tuesday, July 25, 6–8 p.m.
  ○ 219 Riggs Road NE, Washington, DC
  ○ Metro: Fort Totten (on red and green lines)
  ○ We’ll be preparing meals and groceries for people living with HIV/AIDS throughout the DC metropolitan area.

Global Outreach

V. Incorporation of the club
  ● Note on invoices

VI. Kiwanis family & conventions
  ● Night tour of Downtown DC, Friday, July 28, starting at 7:30 p.m.
    ○ Cost: $20; fundraiser benefiting the Eastern Branch Kiwanis Club
  ● Capital District Convention in Reston, VA, August 18–20

VII. Social & Networking
  ● Flip Orley (comic hypnotist) at DC Improv, Friday, July 21, starting at 8 p.m.
    ○ 1140 Connecticut Avenue NW, Washington, DC (on Connecticut Ave. between L and M Streets)
    ○ Metro: Farragut North (on red line)
    ○ Tickets: $19.50 each (including service charge)
  ● Happy hour at Nooshi, Wednesday, July 26, from 5:30–8 p.m.
    ○ 1120 19th Street NW, Washington, DC (on 19th Street between L and M Streets)
    ○ Metro: Farragut West (on blue and orange lines)
    ○ Specials: ALL drinks are 50 percent off before 7 p.m., outdoor seating, plus yummy food (sushi and noodles)
    ○ Look for the red balloon!

VIII. Membership
  ● Spread word of club through work networks and to new hires
  ● Future Membership meetings: 7 p.m. at Martin Luther King Jr. Library
    ○ Metro: Gallery Place-Chinatown (on red and yellow lines)
    ○ Tuesday, August 8; room A-9
    ○ Wednesday, September 13; room A-10

IX. Open floor

X. You’re outta here!
  ● But please stay for the Service Committee meeting!

“We make a living by what we do, but we make a life by what we give.” —Winston Churchill