Start paddling!

Situated on Lake Ontario, Toronto is the capital of Ontario and the largest city in Canada.

Toronto is considered to be one of the most multicultural cities in the world. It boasts a fusion of over 140 cultures.
Things are looking up!

The CN Tower is the world’s second tallest freestanding structure.
Grab your passport.

There are over 300 non-stop flights to Toronto from 40 U.S. cities daily.
Vroom. Vroom.

150 million Americans live within a one-day drive of Toronto.
The place to be.

Toronto is the number one convention city in North America. 50% of U.S. conventions held in Canada are held in Toronto.
Adopted Home Sweet Home.

Half of Toronto’s population was born outside of Canada.
All aboard!

Toronto has the 2nd largest public transportation system in North America (after New York City).
Meet me in Toronto.

Toronto is the No.1 visitor destination in Canada.
Are we there yet?

Yonge Street (Toronto’s main drag) is the longest street in the world.
Night on the town?

Toronto has more than 200 professional theatre and dance companies.
Open for fun.

Rogers Centre is the only stadium in the world with a fully retractable roof.
How refreshing.

Toronto has more than 10,000 acres of parkland.
Every night is movie night.

Per capita, Toronto has the largest movie-going population in North America.
Too close to miss.

Toronto is situated within a 90 minute drive of world-famous Niagara Falls.
True love.

The Toronto Maple Leafs haven’t won a Stanley Cup since 1967. Despite that, they have a loyal fan base and tickets are always sold out.
The right connections.

A veritable underground city, PATH is the largest subterranean pedestrian system in North America.

Toronto is North America’s third largest venue for movie production. There are over 25,000 jobs in feature film production.
Play time.

The Toronto Islands, just a short ferry ride away from downtown Toronto, comprise the largest urban car-free and recreational destination in North America.