ATTENDANCE REMINDERS

That really “remind”

Of particular interest to club secretaries and chairmen of Attendance Committees

...MAN POWER

Bulging biceps and a barrel-like chest may be of great value in some situations but in Kiwanis we measure man power by attendance and the ability to serve. The strength of any organization is collective. Kiwanis needs the active participation of every member to carry its load of community service. Attend the next meeting and help us build a vigorous future.

...DROPP IN

We know in advance when there’s a meeting coming along. We also know when you are going to be there or not. We aren’t going to wake you up at a meeting that’s already started. Just drop in and catch the tail end of it and the meeting will be over before you know it.

WE MISSED YOU

We’re a group of people who believe that the more we all work the better the work will be. It’s a lot more fun to do something with others than alone. So if you were supposed to be here and weren’t, we have to tell you that you’re missed.

YOUR FEET UNDER THE TABLE

There’s a lot of truth in the saying that you are what you eat and that you are also what you do. That’s why we’re all sitting at the table. There’s plenty of room under the table and we’re sure you would rather be under the table where you can see what’s going on.

HIGH TIME

We’re missing your attendance at the meeting and the work that you do. You’re an important part of the organization and we’d like to see you here. It’s high time you showed up. Don’t worry about the meeting, it’s going to be over before you know it.

REPORT FOR DUTY

If you’re going to be late, please let us know. Our meetings are important and we need to make sure that everyone is here. If you can’t make it, please let us know so that we can make other arrangements.

MARKS THE SPOT

You should arrive at the meeting early, at least 10 minutes before the scheduled time. This will give you time to get settled in and be ready for the meeting. The meeting will start on time and if you arrive late, you’ll miss important information.

ON YOUR TRACKS

Each member is responsible for their own attendance record. It’s important to keep track of your attendance so that you can be sure to be there when it counts. If you’re unable to attend, please let us know so that we can make other arrangements.

YOU’RE DERN TOOTIN’

We know you value our club, but how much do you really value it? You need to be there for the meetings and you need to be there for the events. If you can’t make it, please let us know so that we can make other arrangements.
