Renovation rejoice

Two Jamaican service clubs are repaying a retired shoemaker for his service to his community. Read more.

Collegiate computers

Some say one man’s trash is another’s treasure. This saying may never ring as true as it does when applied to computers given to schoolchildren in Timor-Leste. Read more.

Decorating dreams

News

Convention news

Learn more about the candidates running for office in Vancouver. Review their web pages by clicking on their names.

Sign up for the tours that are available in Vancouver and beyond—before, during and after the convention.

Introducing our two newest speakers: Rick Hanson and Nick Katsoris.

Member resources

Get your Kiwanis facts with updated Information and statistics. Read more.

At their January meeting, the Kiwanis International Board approved the host site for the 99th Annual Kiwanis International Convention. The Tokyo-Chiba, Japan, convention is scheduled for July 17–20, 2014.

An informative brochure about Kiwanis and club membership application is now available for potential members in Spanish.

Kiwannis One Day

Is your club doing something special for Kiwanis One Day? Tell us what it is Autumn Brantley is no ordinary 10-year-old. While she awaits her second bone marrow transplant in two years, the Kiwanis Club of Spring Hill, Florida, sought to make the time she spends at home as magical as possible. Read more.

Soup's on

What'll it be? Hot 'n' sour? Chicken and corn? Or veggie? Whatever you choose, a special group of children in Karachi, Pakistan, are well served. Read more and get the recipes, too.

---

by March 1st by entering this contest, and you might just win a professionally produced video about your project featured at the Kiwanis International convention and on the Kiwanis International website and YouTube channel. Read more.

The Eliminate Project

February marks the month when Valentine's Day is celebrated in many countries. Are you looking for a special way to celebrate? Make a gift today.

"Express your love for the most vulnerable children on earth—the babies who needlessly die every nine minutes from tetanus. Saving one life costs just US$1.80—less than a greeting card or a box of chocolate," says Kiwanis First Lady Rosemary DeJulio.

Videos

First Lady Rosemary DeJulio's February message on The Eliminate Project.

Watch highlights from the 2012 CKI Large Scale Service Project in New Orleans.

Kiwanis Store
Rain or shine, everyone needs a trusty umbrella. Why not have one that shows your Kiwanis pride? Check out our other apparel.