Cancer survivor spreads hope

A cancer diagnosis can be devastating, confusing and frustrating. But Kenner North, Louisiana, Kiwanian Columbus "Lum" Ellis has made it his mission to desensitize the word "cancer" and bring patients comfort and understanding. Read more.

Climbing to new heights against tetanus

Vaughn Hagen is a 21-year Kiwanian who pushed himself to new heights to help mothers and babies around the world. Deciding to make the life-saving climb up a mountain he often admires from his home window proved to be a challenging and rewarding learning experience. Read more.
Teaching about teeth

One of the ways Kiwanians know their service projects have been successful is when those they help flash them a smile. So to make sure the smiles in their community are symbols of both happiness and healthiness, the St. Johns, Antigua, Kiwanis Club is teaching young children about the importance of oral health. Read more.

Kiwanians in police service

"We don't get paid or reimbursed, but we are, in a way saving the community and doing civic duties," says Rochester Day Makers, Minnesota, Kiwanian David Moehnke.

Like Moehnke, several members of the club have taken the commitment to the community that they made as Kiwanians literally by participating in the Volunteers in Public Service (VIPS) Program. Read more.

What do you value most about your Kiwanis club? Whatever it is, members make it happen. So make membership growth a priority.

Videos

Does your club sponsor a Circle K club? Share this video with them to help them recruit.

Kiwanis International President Gunter Gasser encourages celebrating Kiwanis Family Month.

Kiwanis International

Foundation

Giving to the Kiwanis International Foundation extends your Kiwanis impact by helping to fund grants. Any club wishing to apply for one should do so by November 15th.

Through an individual and/or club gift, you make an impact in a child's life. Contributions — no matter the size — strengthen and sustain your foundation.

Convention news

Discover our convention host city — and other Asia-Pacific destinations. Check out the complete line-up of official tours.