A 28-year Kiwanian, Robert Burlison Jr. has been riding motorcycles for even longer. His idea to combine a passion for service with the enjoyment he feels when he's one with the elements on his bike blossomed into a potentially Guinness World Record-breaking trek across 48 states, raising more than US$25,000 for mothers and babies around the globe. Read more.

In 1994, Helena, Montana, Kiwanian Jim Christnacht saw a large number of bikes in the police department impound lot and his wheels started turning.

"I saw a need for adults and children who did not have bikes," he says. "I checked with the police department to see if I could obtain a small number to be fixed up and donated to those in need as an experiment. It is an experiment that far exceeded our expectations!"
Toys for comfort

"My daughter had convulsions," and the fire department came to the family's aid, one mother recounted. Fortunately, a stuffed animal distributed by Kiwanis clubs in the département of Yonne, France, helped to comfort her. Read more.

Lawyer shares skills with community

Bruce Bigelow is a nearly 20-year Kiwanian who recently retired from administrative law. He has channeled his commitment to providing legal support for low-income individuals into his volunteer work — and he has advice for other Kiwanians about doing the same. Read more.

Convention news

Proposed resolutions and amendments to the Kiwanis International Bylaws must be received by October 31st to be considered at the 2014 Kiwanis International convention. Learn how to make proposals and more.

The Eliminate Project

Partner with Service Leadership Programs to scare up some fun and funds for The Eliminate Project this Halloween. Finalize your Trick-or-Treat for UNICEF plans today.

Looking for new ways to raise money for The Eliminate Project this fall? Try one of these winning ideas suggested — and tested — by Kiwanis clubs around the world.

Videos

Kiwanis International President Gunter Gasser talks about the importance of growing Kiwanis.

Kiwanis Store

I'm a Terrific Kid

I love Bugs
Does your club sponsor a Terrific Kids or Bring Up Grades (BUG) program? These items may help support them.