The Growth Picture

Three commitments

Taking personal responsibility for your personal and professional success is one of the keys to volunteering and club success.

If you want your club to finish strong, you and your fellow members must make three commitments:

• Take personal responsibility for the club’s success—doing the things necessary to help it thrive.
• Set SMART goals. Then do whatever it takes to achieve them.
• Push through problems and setbacks. They’ll happen. But if you react positively to negative developments, you’ll move toward meeting your goals.

“Today I will do what others won’t, so tomorrow I can accomplish what others can’t.”
— Jerry Rice, NFL football player

“Make sure your calendar represents the priorities you claim to be most important in life.”
— Darren Hardy, publisher of Success magazine.

Finish Strong

Finish: To bring, a task or activity, to an end; to complete
Strong: Able to perform a specified action well and powerfully

Each of these words is important on its own. But put them together and it’s a recipe for success—for your club, your division, your district and for the entire Kiwanis family.
"Believe and act as if it were impossible to fail."
— Charles F. Kettering

“Regardless of what came before or of what has yet to come, what matters most right now is how I choose to respond to the challenge before me. Will I lie down or will I fight? The choice is mine and I choose to finish strong.”
— Dan Green
