Give your guests a warm Kiwanis welcome

WE ASKED SOME OF THE MOST SUCCESSFUL CLUBS THEIR SECRETS TO TURNING GUESTS INTO MEMBERS. USE THEIR TIPS TO YOUR ADVANTAGE.

Tips for making your guests feel great

1. Introduce club members and Kiwanis to guests
   - Introductions can include things like how long each person has been a member of Kiwanis, their occupations, hobbies, the best part about being a Kiwanian or what they love most about their club.
   - Assign a member, or a couple members, to explain SLPs and other key components of Kiwanis that set it apart from other service organizations.

2. Introduce the guests to the group
   - Guests can either be introduced by the member who invited them or can introduce themselves. If they have expressed an interest in joining, ask what they hope to gain by becoming a member.

3. Provide guests with a list of upcoming service projects. Assign a member to ask about their interests and talk to them about the committees they might enjoy.

4. Follow-up with an application, handwritten note, phone call or visit thanking guests for attending
   - Giving them a membership application alone is not enough! Personally invite them to join.

5. Have one or two club members connect with the guest via LinkedIn.
   - Show them that Kiwanians have lots of business and civic networking connections.
